

RFID Terms & Conditions

- You are given a non-exclusive and non-transferable right to access the Inner Terminal Road for the purpose of providing passenger transport services.
- The right of access shall be granted only to perform i) a passenger drop-off service; or ii) a passenger collection service. If you are performing a passenger drop-off service, you shall be required to access the Inner Terminal Road, drop off the passenger/s near the Departures building, and proceed to exit the Inner Terminal Road (or proceed to access the coaches car park if you have a relevant pre-booking for passenger collection). If you are performing a passenger collection service, you shall be required to access the Inner Terminal Road and proceed to the coaches car park where all collection of passengers shall take place. Access to the coaches car park shall require a pre-booking. If you attempt to access or access the coaches car park without a valid pre-booking, the Company reserves the right to deny you entry to the coaches car park and / or withdraw the right to access the Inner Terminal Road in the future, for a definite period or indefinitely, at its discretion and without any compensation or liability on the part of the Company.
- Given the traffic and utilisation of the Inner Terminal Road and parking spaces therein, you are prohibited from unnecessarily idling or remaining parked on the Inner Terminal Road. Whenever you access the coaches car park to perform a passenger collection service, the duration of your stay must not exceed the maximum stay time allotted to you by the Company in written communication/s to you (the “Maximum Stay”). Should your stay be longer than the Maximum Stay, you will be required to pay an additional fee, for the amount specified in written communication/s to you, for each fifteen (15) minutes or part thereof during which you remain in the area from expiry of the Maximum Stay until time of exit (the “Additional Fee”). The Additional Fee must be paid on exit from the coaches car park. Exit from the coaches car park shall not be permitted prior to payment of the additional fee being effected.
- RFID tags are strictly non-transferable. Unauthorised use will result in immediate cancellation of the relevant RFID tags without any compensation or liability on the part of the Company.
- You shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations including, without limitations, the Passenger Transport Services Regulations (Legal Notice 149 of 2009, as amended from time to time) and the Light Passenger Transport Services and Vehicles Hire Services Regulations (Legal Notice 366 of 2020, as amended from time to time), as applicable.
- Lost or damaged RFID tags will be replaced by the Company at a charge of €10.00 per RFID tag. Provided that, if you replace your vehicle with a brand new vehicle and provide satisfactory evidence to the Company to that effect, the charge for the RFID tag for the brand new vehicle shall be waived.
- Company is not responsible for any damage, fire, theft or loss to vehicles or their contents while parked on Company property unless caused by the Company’s wilful misconduct or gross negligence.
- You shall abide by any directive or instruction given by any official of the Company and fully cooperate in the implementation of any safety or security measures imposed by the Company.
- You shall only park the vehicles in the designated areas of the Inner Terminal Road for the drop-off of passengers.

- You shall pick up passengers from the parking area (coaches car park) made available for the vehicles at the Airport.
- You shall ensure that you have obtained, at your own cost and expense, all the necessary licences, permits or any other authorisations which are required to operate the vehicles and provide passengers transport services.
- You shall, upon a request by the Company, submit to the Company a copy of any documentation which the Company may reasonably require in relation to the provision of passenger transport services at the Airport.
- You shall at all times keep in full force and effect, at your sole expense, adequate insurance cover against any public and third party liability, particularly in relation with the injury or death of any person and any damage to or loss of property. You shall, if so requested by the Company, furnish to the Company certificates or otherwise evidence satisfactory to the Company of such insurance cover.
- You shall indemnify the Company and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all claims arising from your negligent or wilful act or omission whether in connection with the provision of passenger transport services, or from any activity, work or thing done, permitted or suffered by you in or about the Airport or elsewhere.
- You shall pay the for the RFID tag (the “Fee”) in advance. No access shall be available if the Fee is not paid. Subscription fees are non-refundable.
- If you breach any of these Terms and Conditions, the Company reserves the right to, through a notice in writing and in its complete discretion, terminate or suspend (definitely or indefinitely) your right of access with immediate effect, without any compensation or liability on the part of the Company.
- You shall ensure that all drivers of the vehicles which are offering passenger transport services at the Airport abide by these Terms & Conditions.
- A minimum period of 4 working days is required for administration purposes.
- Copy of logbook is requested for new registrations, renewals and transfers.
- The Company shall not be liable for any damages you may incur, including (but not limited to) loss of business profits or business interruption, due to its exercise of its rights as set out in these Terms and Conditions.
